

Scarborough North Pulmonary Function Lab

4040 Finch Ave E, Scarborough
Seeking

PULMONARY FUNCTION TECHNOLOGIST

Permanent Fridays with additional option to work evenings and Saturday

QUALIFICATIONS:

- B.Sc. in Health Science or equivalent
- Registration in good standing with the Canadian Association of Cardio-Pulmonary Technologists (C.A.C.P.T.) or registry eligible.
- Registered Respiratory Therapist
- Minimum of one year experience in all aspects of pulmonary function testing an asset. Will provide additional training if required.
- Ability to work independently in a laboratory environment
- Strong technical skills
- Strong interpersonal and teamwork abilities
- Attention to detail and efficient time management.
- Experience working with people with varying degrees of illnesses or disabilities.
- Current BCLS
- Evidence of satisfactory attendance & punctuality

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Perform flow volume loops, diffusing capacity, and body plethysmography
- Setup, calibration, troubleshooting and routine maintenance of the pulmonary function laboratory equipment
- Produce accurate and timely study reports through the detailed analysis of data in accordance with accepted professional and laboratory standards
- Maintain accurate and detailed records of all studies and related activities
- Liaise with technical, medical and interdisciplinary team members

Salary and benefits are negotiable

Applicants selected for interviews will be contacted

Email resume to: info@ntsleap.com