B) Text books and guidelines: If a more current edition is available in any of the references below, it is acceptable to use the newer copy for your studies. Textbooks are available in University Library Collections.

- 1) Manual of Pulmonary Function Testing, 10th Ed. Gregg L. Ruppel, Publishers - Mosby, St. Louis, 2012.
- 2) Pulmonary Function Testing and Cardiopulmonary Stress Testing 2nd Ed. Vincent C. Madama, Rock Valley College, Rockford, Illinois, 1997.

3) Kettering National Seminars Certified Pulmonary Function (CPFT) Home Study Course: <https://www.ketteringseminars.com/shoppingCart/catalog.aspx>

NOTE: These Kettering resources are designed for individuals who are writing the American, not the Canadian, pulmonary function exam. They have plenty of content relevant to the CACPT exam, and are an excellent resource. However, it is critical that you are aware that the information provided to you, on the audio CD's and in the booklets, that state what to expect on the exam, is NOT applicable to the CACPT exam.
